

1. Which animal eats mostly plants?

- A) Cow
- B) Lion
- C) Tiger
- D) Wolf

2. What does a bird use to get its food?

- A) Teeth
- B) Claws
- C) Beak
- D) Trunk

3. A cat is a _____.

- A) Plant-eater
- B) Meat-eater
- C) Insect-eater
- D) Fruit-eater

4. If we see a rabbit nibbling on carrots, what kind of animal is it?

- A) Meat-eater
- B) Plant-eater
- C) Insect-eater
- D) Omnivore

5. Which of these animals eats both plants and meat?

- A) Snake
- B) Giraffe
- C) Bear
- D) Zebra

6. If you were to observe a bird building a nest, what might you learn about its eating habits?

- A) Nothing
- B) Where it finds food
- C) What colors it likes
- D) How fast it can fly

7. Imagine you see a squirrel burying nuts. What can you infer about its eating habits?

- A) It's a meat-eater
- B) It's a plant-eater
- C) It eats insects only
- D) It's an omnivore

8. Why do you think a lion has sharp teeth?

- A) To eat plants
- B) To eat meat
- C) To build nests
- D) To fly

9. A farmer wants to know what his cows eat. What kind of experiment could he do?

- A) Count the cows
- B) Weigh the cows
- C) Observe what the cows eat
- D) Measure the size of the cows' ears